

Just Like A Woman

Judy Collins

Nobody feels any pain
Tonight as I stand inside the rain
Everybody knows baby's got new clothes
Lately I see her ribbons and her bows
Have fallen from her curls

She takes just like a woman, yes, she does
She makes love just like a woman, yes, she does
She aches just like a woman
But she breaks just like a little girl

Queen Mary, she's my friend
Yes, I believe I'll go see her again
Nobody has to guess that baby can't be blessed
'Til she finally sees that she's like all the rest
With her fog, her Amphetamine and her pearls

She takes just like a woman, yes, she does
She makes love just like a woman, yes, she does
She aches just like a woman
Ah, but she breaks just like a little girl

It was raining from the first
And I was dying there of thirst, so I came in here
And your long time curse hurts
But what's worse is this pain in here
I can't stand here, ain't it clear?

That I just can't fit
I believe it's time for us to quit
When we meet again, introduced as friends
Please don't let on that you knew me when I was hungry and it was your world

You fake just like a woman, yes, you do
You make love just like a woman, yes, you do
You ache just like a woman
Ah, but you break just like a little girl
Just like a little girl, just like a little girl
And you break just like a little girl
