

I've Confessed to the Breeze (I Love You)

Judy Garland

There's something I would like to say
But all my thoughts just fade away
And all my courage flies when I look into your eyes
I'm wishing for your answer sweet, my heart has nearly ceased to beat
Why keep on hesitating?
Why keep me longer waiting?
My dear I too have done meditating
I've confessed to the breeze I love you
Told the birds and the bees your name
And every star above you, each has heard every word
