

One Touch

Juice Newton

I don't feel you no more, and I'm dyin' inside
There's no reachin' for you that I haven't tried
You keep on talkin' when there's nothin' to say
You tell me you love me, then you turn me away

Was a time when your touch could tear me apart
Without a word, you could talk to my heart
Now you talk to me like you got nothin' to say
You move around me like I'm in the way

We talk and we talk, but I still haven't heard
One touch, baby, is worth a thousand words

One touch is worth a thousand words
Keep on talkin', but you still haven't heard
One touch is worth a thousand words
One touch
Oh yeah, one touch
One touch, baby, is worth a thousand words

Oh whoah

I don't feel you no more, and I'm dyin' inside
There's no reachin' for you that I haven't tried
There's no use pretending, and there's no excuse
It's either there or it's not, if it's not, what's the use?

I'm screamin' out loud, but I can't hear the words
One touch, baby, is worth a thousand words

One touch is worth a thousand words
Keep on talkin', but you still haven't heard
One touch, it's worth a thousand words

One touch is worth a thousand words (Oh yeah, one touch)
Keep on talkin', but you still haven't heard
One touch is worth a thousand words
I said, One touch
Oh yeah, one touch
One touch, baby, is worth a thousand
One touch, baby, it's worth a thousand
One touch, baby, is worth a thousand words

(One touch)

(One touch)

Oh, give me one touch
