

Walkin' Into Trouble

Juice Newton

This may not be the time or place to worry, I'm sorry
But every time I see that face it does something to me
My friends say, "Better walk away," I say, "No, no, no"
Step by step, here I go

I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love
I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love

I'm afraid I might forget what real romance should be Even though we've never met I know that he could be
My friends say, "Better walk away," I say, "No, no, no"
Step by step, here I go

I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love
I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love
I know I'm walking into trouble
And I wonder what I'm thinking of Friends say, "Better walk away," I say, "No, no, no"

Step by step, here I go

I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love
I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love

I know I'm walking into trouble
I wonder what I'm thinking of
I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love

I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love
I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love

I know I'm walking into trouble
I know I'm falling in love
I know I'm walking into trouble
I wonder what I'm thinking of
