

[Chorus]

Off-White on the G-Fazo's
 Her love's dead, think it needs a halo
 I'm in my head, dammit, I think too much
 Now I'm getting tear stains on the bankrolls
 Bro said if she wanna leave, I should let go
 Heart saying, "If she leave, we're going with her, let's go"
 I don't wanna let go, girl from seven-three-four

[Verse 1]

Time, time heals all wounds
 But time can leave the nastiest scars
 This happened too soon
 I'm starting to think I don't know who you are
 Pills get popped as your love gets stopped
 You just sit and watch as I wheeze and cough
 I can't breathe at all, I can't breathe it off
 I can't breathe with all the pain involved

[Chorus]

Off-White on the G-Fazo's
 Her love's dead, think it needs a halo
 I'm in my head, dammit, I think too much
 Now I'm getting tear stains on the bankrolls
 Bro said if she wanna leave, I should let go
 Heart saying, "If she leave, we're going with her, let's go"
 I don't wanna let go, girl from seven-three-four

[Verse 2]

In the studio getting high with the bros
 Eyes get big when I see you're texting my phone
 Codependent, yeah, I hate being alone
 And everyone knows
 Now I got to deal with this rain again
 The same rain that you made go away (That you made go away)
 Now I gotta deal with this heart-throbbin' pain again
 The pain feel like it never go away (Never go away)
 Girl, never say you can't forgive me for my mistakes
 You do things to make me ache, but I love you so much, I'll wait
 For however long it takes

[Chorus]

Off-White on the G-Fazo's
 Her love's dead, think it needs a halo
 I'm in my head, dammit, I think too much
 Now I'm getting tear stains on the bankrolls
 Bro said if she wanna leave, I should let go
 Heart saying, "If she leave, we're going with her, let's go"
 I don't wanna let go, girl from seven-three-four
 Off-White on the G-Fazo's
 Her love's dead, think it needs a halo
 I'm in my head, dammit, I think too much
 Now I'm getting tear stains on the bankrolls
 Bro said if she wanna leave, I should let go
 Heart saying, "If she leave, we're going with her, let's go"
 I don't wanna let go, girl from seven-three-four
