

Cocaine

Juice WRLD

Oh, I'm fallin'
Location, I come see it
You know it's Mitch Mula
Damo

She told me she love cocaine
I can get it for you, baby, you don't have to wait
She don't even know my name
I don't know hers, I wasn't gon' ask anyway
She told me she love cocaine
I can get it for you, baby, you don't have to wait
She don't even know my name
I don't know hers, I wasn't gon' ask anyway

She broke my heart so many times, I had to taste some medicine
I get so God damn drunk and high, it get me an impediment
Talkin' stupid, too busy, I'm ballin' like a lay-up
Yeah, I ain't hurtin', I been workin', so baby, it is worth it
In a couple years, I buy your ass a Birkin', that's for certain
They want to play, I shut it down, bitch, close the curtain
All I know is getting paid, right, get laid, check
I love money, I love sex
She loves guns more than me
Full clip, right now it's empty
Told you I've been living wrong, that's cool
I'm just tryna make a song about you

She told me she love cocaine
I can get it for you, baby, you don't have to wait
She don't even know my name
I don't know hers, I wasn't gon' ask anyway
She told me she love cocaine
I can get it for you, baby, you don't have to wait
She don't even know my name
I don't know hers, I wasn't gon' ask anyway

I'm doin' what I want, not what I'm told to do
You ain't gettin' gone, I won't let go of you
I'm stuck in the same mindset
I'm stuck in the same mind frame
I guess we got same mindsets
We playin' the same mind games
You must think I'm stupid, you must think I'm foolish
Every day I'm ballin', feel like Tyler Ullis
Baby, if you listenin' right now, I'm hoping you hear this
I ball like triple threat, triple threat, yeah, you gon' fear this

She told me she love cocaine
I can get it for you, baby, you don't have to wait
She don't even know my name
I don't know hers, I wasn't gon' ask anyway
She told me she love cocaine
I can get it for you, baby, you don't have to wait
She don't even know my name
I don't know hers, I wasn't gon' ask anyway
