

Got a new nine that'll leave your mouth wide
Leave you hogtied, burnin' on a campfire
Before I leave the crib, I pray to God I won't die
I know it's hard to kill me, but I know they gon' try
You's a pussy boy, yeah, you a feline
Get your own business and get out of mine
Had to kill a witness, ain't doin' no time
Watch them niggas around you, they playin' both sides

Boy, your gang ain't your gang and your homies, not your homies
Run it up, get that sack, but do that shit right by your lonely
Choppa hit him with a force like I'm Obi-Wan Kenobi

Them guns blatt, no hit and run, you get your grill rattled
You had it rough when you was young, so I can feel that
That pain put anger in your heart, you wanna kill 'em all
I lost my nigga from the start, I hate I missed his call
If you stay loyal, play your part, then you gon' get to ball
Fast lane, we never go and park, I just keep driftin' off
