

High Again

Juice WRLD

Ooh, all I wanna do, oh, oh (Get high with my friends)
All I wanna do is get high with my friends
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah-oh
All I wanna do
Hahaha
It's Donn

All I wanna do is get high with my friends (Friends)
If I die in the process, it'll be the end (End)
Just a kid from the projects, I was born to win (Win)
In a world full of darkness, I was born to sin (Sin)
Getting stuck in the past tense, 'cause the present ain't shit but elastic (Elastic)
They stretching the truth like it matter (Matter)
Getting high off my thoughts, but I manage (Manage)
Things ain't going exactly as planned (Exactly as planned)

Devil on my shoulder like, "What's up?"
I look back, I'm like, "What's up?"
He spoke up, he said, "Good luck"
I said, "I don't need luck"
Then, he pulled out the blue pills
Damn, I think I need 'em
Damn, I think I need 'em
Damn, I think I need 'em

All I wanna do is get high with my friends (Friends)
If I die in the process, it'll be the end (End)
Just a kid from the projects, I was born to win (Win)
In a world full of darkness, I was born to sin (Sin)
Getting stuck in the past tense, 'cause the present ain't shit but elastic (Elastic)
They stretching the truth like it matter (Matter)
Getting high off my thoughts, but I manage (Manage)
Things ain't going exactly as planned (Exactly as planned)

Things ain't going exactly as planned
Making mistakes but I say to myself:
"The mistakes that I make, they won't happen again"
So even when I lose, lil' nigga, I win
I don't got nothing to lose, I got everything to win
Favorite pill-color blue, take two with the Gin
Cold sweats, stomach fucked up, what the fuck, bruh?
I'm going through the same withdrawals again
Lost in my mind, I know it's a trance
I'ma fly high, nigga, in these D&G pants
If I die high, nigga, just know I was mad
That I ain't get a chance to get high again

Chance to get high again
Chance to get high again (Chance to get high)
