

High Tide

Juice WRLD

The abyss
Ally
I love you baby
The abyss, this for y'all

Drowning, in high tide
I sit back and watch the time fly
Then I pretend that I'm alright
Use my hellfire as some sunshine (Shine)

Los Angeles, looking at my angles
Thanks to Percocets, I almost gave myself a halo
Dirty money cleaned by tears, new bankroll
Smokin' 'til my eyes drop tears, then they shut closed
I don't know what's goin' on with me, I don't got time for it t hough
'Cause I'm too busy roamin' the globe
Fly to London for a show
Had a luncheon in the castle dungeon, all the dragons calling m e bro, oh

You're in my abyss
There's no escaping
There's no hiding
This is it, this is all
This is the end
Hm

Woke up from a bad dream
Sip too much Easter pink, oh yeah
My head goin' off of the brick, oh yeah
Ice on my wrist, hockey rink in here
Fresh Prince but I'm a king, no Bel Air
They hate on me everyday but I don't care
Tryna put negativity up in the air
Pray to God that my enemies come to an end
It was way more simple when I was a kid

High tide
I sit back and watch the time fly
Then I pretend that I'm alright
Use my hellfire as some sunshine (Shine)
High tide
