

Red Moonlight

Juice WRLD

Let's make love in the sunrise (Yeah)
Had enough hell in my life (Oh yeah)
Percs, purple lean, red moonlight (Yeah)
Did enough spells for one night (Yeah)
Help me run away from the drug life
I been hiding pain with the Wraith and the limelight
Satan had a place in my heart and it ain't right
Came to the curve for a girl from the white light
Demon wears a halo, that girl my type
She don't got it now but she used to have a dark side
Bad dream, I woke up on a dark side
Nowadays when I'm high, I get stuck on a dark side
She look me in my eyes, send me love from the light side
That's how I know and I'm gon' be alright
Demons in my chest, they pressed from the left side
Look at my demons, they pressed in the inside

Dilated, high and wasted on them blues (Yeah, yeah)
Mix it with that purple, Heroine
And fossil fuels (Yeah, yeah)
That's when I'm a different person
At that point, I'm not a person
At that point, my tongue a serpent
Doors unlocking, third eyes open
Growl with it, fuck it, howl with it, uh
Get wild with it, huh, then crack a smile with it, uh
Do your own, look in the mirror like, "Yeah, I did it" (Oh yeah)
Drink that potion, red and purple
Throw yo perkys in a circle
Eyes started turning purple, Codeine cup it, runneth over
Turning water into Codeine
Turning consciousness to comas
Now the devil standing over, yeah, he smiling and he lurking
He laughing 'cause them potions that you mixing up was working

Oh, now the third eye's closed
She pulled me out my sleep, telling me, "Was something wrong with me?"
The third eye's closed
The baphomet himself gets exposed

Let's make love in the sunrise (Yeah)
Had enough hell in my life (Oh yeah)
Percs, purple lean, red moonlight (Yeah)
Did enough spells for one night (Yeah)
Help me run away from the drug life

That's how I know and I'm gon' be alright
Demons in my chest, they pressed from the left side
Look at my demons, they pressed in the inside, oh yeah

Let them in my heart, I got the power to kick them out
I let lil' baby in my heart, she go and kick my demons out
I know there's Percs around but Morphine be that shit that make me growl
When I mix it, I know that's my demons on the fucking prowl
On that road, I won't go down
But I could have drugs as an entree now
Feel like drugs help my feng shui out
Bad energy, I better make a monk go ow
Wifey said she here to stay
She told me to cut all that shit out, how?
Shit ain't been the same since I drowned
In it, she calm me down, really?
I feel like death every time I'm coming down, really
Feeling like this, finna come get me
But God sent her to get me
And why demons resent me
I know they wanna come and get meee
They wanna come and get meee, ohhh
I'm standin' right here

Let's make love in the sunrise (Yeah)
Had enough hell in my life (Oh yeah)
