

Scars

Juice WRLD

It's four in the morning, the liquor is pouring
I know that you want it, and I know I'll be having you wet by the chorus
You're pretty gorgeous, Gucci and Dior, leave that by the floor mat
Saw her in the club lights, she was with the drug life
Found out the plug was her ex-boyfriend
She know I'm with the drug life, she want me in her life
Next thing you know, I'm her next boyfriend

Dirty up my soda baby, dirty up my heart
You doing what the Xanax do, you tearing me apart
My head is going everywhere, I don't know where to start
Love shouldn't be that hard
Every girl the same, girl I put that on my heart
These women are the devil, they be tearing me apart
They tell me to come closer when really I should depart
Leaving a nasty scar, she done took it way too far
Left me broke like a law
Got me swimming in my sorrows like Jaws
Why do love feel so wrong?

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

It's four in the morning, the liquor is pouring
I know that you want it, and I know I'll be having you wet by the chorus
You're pretty gorgeous, Gucci and Dior, leave that by the floor mat
Saw her in the club lights, she was with the drug life
Found out the plug was her ex-boyfriend
She know I'm with the drug life, she want me in her life
Next thing you know, I'm her next boyfriend

.30 in my .40 baby, .30 on my Perc'
You think we saving bitches? Do this shit look like a church?
She tell me that she love me and I tell her, "That's a first"
Even though it's probably the third
Even when I'm lit my heart still hurts
Now I gotta drink to drive, hit a curb
I blacked out last night it's a blur, think I got baptized in a curse
Tell me that you love me first, Burberry on your skirt
The devil in the red dress, her, the devil made me undress her

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

It's four in the morning, the liquor is pouring
I know that you want it, and I know I'll be having you wet by the chorus
You're pretty gorgeous, Gucci and Dior, leave that by the floor mat
Saw her in the club lights, she was with the drug life
Found out the plug was her ex-boyfriend
She know I'm with the drug life, she want me in her life
Next thing you know, I'm her next boyfriend
