

Starstruck

Juice WRLD

Yeah
We're
Laying in bed
You see the
I lock eyes
Our eyes lock

Our eyes locked, you can see the sadness
My heart stops, every time you call my name
My jaw drops
You fell from the stars, and I'm starstruck
You fell from the stars
Girl am I lost
We're down, we're sad, is it my fault?
I apologize for all of the lies, oh
I won't, treat you like the rest of them guys, oh

I'm off the percs, you don't condone it
You say it makes me act atrocious
But I can't stand life when I'm sober
Take my heart, I'll hand it over
Six months in, it gets colder
I don't want us to be over
Let's make love, 'til we die
Let's fuck until we slump over

Be my first, I, know that you hate to see me bleed
I don't deserve your love, I tend to fuck up everything
It feels like I'm not enough, 'nough, 'nough, 'nough
This a conversation not a love song

Our eyes locked, you can see the sadness
My heart stops, every time you call my name
My jaw drops
You fell from the stars, and I'm starstruck
You fell from the stars
Girl am I lost
We're down, we're sad, is it my fault?
I apologize for all of the lies, oh
I won't, treat you like the rest of them guys, oh

I wanna know
Is it gon' be forever, or temporary?
If you leave, it'll hurt, keep the tissue ready
Got the drugs on the table, I'm ready
I put Rick on your slippers, no Cinderella
Remember when you went to the fortune teller
She told you, we need each other
Hah, what if she trippin?
I'm just kiddin'
Back to the main focus
I think that you're gorgeous
You love the way that I stroke it
Signin' my name on your neck
You used to make potions
Playin' round with Witchcraft
I wonder if you'll put that in my lean and I'll drink that

Our eyes locked, you can see the sadness
My heart stops, every time you call my name
My jaw drops
You fell from the stars, and I'm starstruck
You fell from the stars
Girl am I lost
We're down, we're sad, is it my fault?
I apologize for all of the lies, oh
I won't, treat you like the rest of them guys, oh

We met in a Twilight Zone
I fall apart when she keep me whole
We met on the West Coast
But I still see Miami in your soul

Our eyes locked, you can see the sadness
My heart stops, every time you call my name
My jaw drops
You fell from the stars, and I'm starstruck
You fell from the stars
Girl am I lost
We're down, we're sad, is it my fault?
I apologize for all of the lies, oh
I won't, treat you like the rest of them guys, oh

I'm here to serve a purpose
Girl I know I ain't picture perfect
One more thing I know for certain
If you leave I'll close the curtains
