With all the codes in the street while fake niggas be makin' the rules

Jealous of pussy you gettin', they start tellin' lies about you
(Niggas ain't cool)
Get you locked up for some shit, just to see if you can lose

These bitches be hatin', nah, they don't be happy
They smile in your face, be excited and clappin'
But really they mad that you made that shit happen

Just know you play, then you left in the past tense
You not the shit, you just lame and a has-been

All in my DM with racks to get at me
Sayin' you street with no key, no, you actin'
Hoes swear it's up and be stuck with no action
I keep some shit in my pocket with static
Ready to split a bitch up like a fraction
But bitches don't be on that behind them status
They just typin' for likes and new ats
Until I pop out and get on they ass
Until I finally speak up and just spazz (Spazz)
