

Beef

Juicy J

What's beef?

Beef is when them niggas on the corner watching me

Beef is when them bad bitches talking in the streets

Beef is when a nigga owe you money and he lying, he gon' pay you next week

What's beef?

Beef is when that nigga come up short

And claim some niggas robbed his ass for it, haha

What's beef?

Beef is when your baby call the feds

Cause you didn't buy that bitch no Birkin bag

Nigga what's beef?

Hahahaha, check out this bizarre

Brand new style used by me the Juicy J

I could make a million dollars in a day

Money over bitches every way

You can't trust none of these hoes

You can't fuck none of these hoes

You can't reply to their twitter, these bitches out of control

I put my gun on my money and what I made

Niggas plotting on me to make a play

Let us pray

Dear father, dear father

I don't know what I'ma do to these niggas that's watching on me

Forgive me lord, forgive me lord

For anybody that I body and put in a mole

What's beef?

Beef is when 150 niggas on the street

Waiting for your ass to come home

What's beef?

Beef is when you tryna fuck your connect

Now they want your head for a check nigga

Tell me what's beef?

Beef is when them niggas on the corner watching me

Beef is when them bad bitches talking in the streets

Beef is when a nigga owe you money and he lying, he gon' pay you next week

What's beef?

Beef is when that nigga come up short

And claim some niggas robbed his ass for it, haha

What's beef?

Beef is when your baby call the feds

Cause you didn't buy that bitch no Birkin bag

Nigga what's beef?

Rolling with some killers, rolling with some hitters

Rolling with some niggas, you the one they 'bout to blast

I done smoked with the rest of 'em

Shot at the best of 'em

Fucked rich bitches up north, I'm finessing 'em

It's all about the money for sure nigga [?]

I ain't work this hard for no motherfucking loss

I walk up in this bitch, smelling like a [?]

You ain't got no heart to fuck with anybody more

The last nigga I let hold something stole something

I gave my homie 10 stacks, told 'em go and get 'em

He ran up in your house, he under the couch

And when you got comfortable, he put his gun in your mouth

What's beef?

Beef is when the streets is never sleep

And niggas catch a fucking energy, close range

What's beef?

Beef is when you die before you need to

Nigga cause the game ain't really need you
