I'm ridin' spinners, I'm ridin' spinners, they don't stop

Niggas ain't built like that

Fall through SoHo House, you don't know none 'bout that Bought my mama a house, show my love like that Black card don't max out, Rich Homie Quan, I flex
Bond my niggas out, you niggas ain't built like that Blessin' gon' come right back, you niggas ain't real like that
In the big body sittin' in the back, you niggas just hear about that Spend the money, get it right back, yeah, I be in the field like that Run off, don't come back, you might get killed like that

I got stripes, like Off-White, got that Saint Laurent
LV shades, on my face, you can't see my eyes
I'm at Diddy's house, drinkin' straight Ciroc
Neiman Marcus, run through bargains, fuck my money up
Met this bitch, her ass is perfect, stored her name as Buns
Hit her once and eject her just like they did LeBron
Don't look like she from Colombia, I don't wanna fuck
I just stay down with that shit and now my numbers up
I know for a fact, niggas ain't built like that Invest in myself, I can make a mil like that I can see you chasin' that clout, should've took a whole 'nother route
She sleep with it in her mouth, something you don't know none 'bout

Think he better, he smokin' a different weed
I'm the king and there can't be no in-between
Keep on talking, that money gon' intervene
Pull up with a new bitch, the new coupe came with the stick
I got the whole squad gettin' hit, and we in LV gettin' lit
I learned not to fuck with them better hoes
Leave the dealer and go cop another Rolls
More face on me, and you know it's real
They gon' hate on the boss, 'cause niggas is soft like that
And I'll break you off like that
Keep on asking the cost when business involved, and niggas get paused like that Put it in they face, just to see these bitches chase
I've been running up a pace, flowers in the vase
Never nice with the case, and these niggas in the way
But they'll be okay
