He ran off on his plug, hit the lotto on 'em

You can't tell a nigga shit, you can't stop the homie

Now he out here like he can't be touched

He the youngest nigga out here buying bottles in the club

Throwing money on the strippers

If he fight, he pull them pistols

On a hand full of drugs with a whole gang of niggas

Living so fast, don't get in his way

He ain't even 18, got 2 babies on the way

They say lil homie got the juice, that's the word around town

Caught him coming out the barber shop, the plug hunt him down

When you hear that choppa

You gon' lay it down, you gon' lay it down

You gon' lay it down

When you hear that choppa

Get yo head down, get yo head down

You gon' lay it down, you gon' lay it down

You gon' lay it down

When you hear that choppa
