You know, like I said a lot of people take on the talents thats really not t heir talent you know what I mean?
It's got to be in you not on you
A lotta guys got it on 'em but it ain't in 'em
And they'll take the risk and try
For the paper, for the glamor, for the glory
But it don't mean it's really they job
Like I know some real serious professional pimps that have played it for yea rs
But they goin'-, they workin' jobs, they doin' this, they doin' that

School of hard knocks, you wasn't there, you in truancy
Grew up 'round drug dealers, pimps, this influenced me
She livin' her life for the gram, let the viewers see
At this point it's just pimpin', ain't no you and me
Puttin' my MAC back down, Gucci bucket, too much cap right now
Add it up, what's the amount?
So much you can't even count
Diamonds, they wet like a fountain
I got the ice like mountain
Make this a public announcement
I'm quick to leave a bitch right where I found her

I'm quick to leave a bitch right where I seen her
I keep it pimpin' like it's a demeanor
If I'm in Vegas I'm at the casino
He thinkin' he tough, well, I bet you I'm meaner
If I'm at home I'm smokin' and chillin'
Countin' this money right up to the ceilin'
I'm dealin' with nothin' but what I be doin'
You say you ballin', but y'all keep losin'
I pulled up, she hit the music
We in the bed, but we ain't snoozin'
I ain't seen it like I'm clueless
I don't snitch or start no rumors
Up in the car, I'm goin' cruisin'
This is everyday amusement
When he call she gon' refuse it
I ain't in this shit, just choose it
Where was you when I had to make the trip on feet?
It was me, make a half a sack stretch for the week
Keep it P, told that bitch, you could just give it all to me
M-E-M-P-H-I-S, until I rest in P

School of hard knocks, you wasn't there, you in truancy
Grew up round drug dealers, pimps, this influenced me
She livin' her life for the 'gram, let the viewers see
At this point it's just pimpin', ain't no you and me
Puttin' my MAC back down, Gucci bucket, too much cap right now
Add it up, what's the amount?
So much you can't even count
Diamonds, they wet like a fountain, I got the ice like mountain
Make this a public announcement
I'm quick to leave a bitch right where I found her

Yeah, heartbreaker, drug taker, pill popper
Syrup sipper, a real player, Memphis nigga

Grill gold, the wheels chrome, bad bitch, I'm a dog, I still roam
Talkin' business on my business phone, you just sit at home
That's the reason why your bitch tryna bury a different bone
I don't like the way you talk to me, bitch, carry a different tone
Ain't nothin' 'bout me flawed, bitch, it's some pimpin' goin' on
I used to have a fear of heights 'til I tried it twice, that was overnight
Now a nigga rockin' Fear of God, I'm like Holy Christ
Gotta take advantage of this shit, this my only life
You might not wanna bring her back around if that's your only wife

School of hard knocks, you wasn't there, you in truancy
Grew up round drug dealers, pimps, this influenced me
She livin' her life for the gram, let the viewers see (Pass that weed, mane)
At this point it's just pimpin', ain't no you and me (Yes, sir)
Puttin' my MAC back down, Gucci bucket, too much cap right now
Add it up, what's the amount? (Mhm)
So much you can't even count (Mhm)
Diamonds, they wet like a fountain (Mhm)
I got the ice like mountain (Mhm)
Make this a public announcement (Mhm)
I'm quick to leave a bitch right where I found her, nigga
