

Consequence

Juicy J

Consequences is one of the most valuable lessons that a person can learn in life. What I'm talking about is every time we make a choice, there's a consequence, and there's even consequences to us no making choices.

If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot, shoot it
You wanna pop some shit? You know the consequence
You wanna pop some shit? You know the consequence
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot it

You got a fully auto and five AR's and AK's
You could catch a stray 'cause bullets ain't got no names
Innocent bystanders could end up in the crossfire
You ain't hit your man, you hit somebody that walked by Now you in that jam, doin' thirty to lizz-life
Your man took the stand, came home and fucked your wizz-life
All because you didn't wanna lose shootin' dizz-ice
Old-school niggas, more grimy than Uncle izz-Ike's
Stunt pumpfaker get niggas tipped every hour
A gun might make all them niggas feel like they got superpowers
But all along, the gun be controllin' your demise
You not a killer 'til you look one in his eyes
Your life on the run, no more fun wit' the guys
Bounty hunters and body snatchers, they all come wit' time
Yeah, weigh all your options, weigh all the pros and the cons
If you knew what would happen, that shit'll open your mind

If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot, shoot it
You wanna pop some shit? You know the consequence
You wanna pop some shit? You know the consequence
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot it

Run a fade, bad look, sleepin' wit' a flash hook
They bring the pole back, they don't wanna get they ass whooped
They put on a mask, look, some do it barefaced
Some wait until you get home under the staircase
[?] without a trace, your fingerprints on the rocket
You got a public defender, a dirty Pistol wit' bodies
You standin' over shit, ain't no prints, the judge know that shit
I done seen them impact statements get niggas over wit'
Football numbers for gun charges and battery
Shorties turned up, they young, chargin' they batteries
Always toss the blick up into the river when you done
Holdin' on two dirty Pistol have you niggas on the run

If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot, shoot it
You wanna pop some shit? You know the consequence

You wanna pop some shit? You know the consequence
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot it
If you pull out a gun, you better shoot, shoot, shoot it
