Jukebox the Ghost

Here's to more of the everyday
Raise a glass and sing along
The outcasts and the underdogs

On the benches, on the sidelines
Wallflowers, this is our time
Ordinary people everyday

In the nosebleeds, in the bleachers
I see victims, I see fighters
Raise a glass and cheers to everyday
Raise a glass to more of the everyday

Cheers!
Cheers!
Cheers to all the dreamers, the everyday believers!
Cheers!
Cheers!
Cheers to all the dreamers!

Time to get out, start the morning
Nine to five and five to nine
Raise a glass, cause we've got bills to pay

To all the lovers and the loners
All the hustlers and the warriors
Raise a glass and cheers to every day, yeah
Raise a glass to more of the everyday

Cheers!
Cheers!
Cheers to all the dreamers, the everyday believers!
Cheers!
Cheers!
Cheers to all the dreamers!

Here's to more of the everyday
Raise a glass and sing along
The outcasts and the underdogs

Here's to more of the everyday
Raise a glass and sing along
The outcasts and the underdogs

Cheers!
Cheers!
Cheers to all the dreamers, the everyday believers!
Cheers!
Cheers!
Cheers to all the dreamers, the everyday believers!

Here's to more of the everyday
Raise a glass and sing along
The outcasts and the underdogs
