

Hey Maude

Jukebox the Ghost

I approached you and took your hand
And we started dancing
Spinning in the sweetest reverie
It felt fantastic

And then we kissed goodnight
And everything was perfect, fantastic, now
Just now
I fell in love just now

Hey Maude, guess what
I've given up
I even wrote you a love letter
Drunkenly convinced
This is really it
You proved me the fool
I proved you the fooler

Something in the air and in your eyes
Got me enchanted
Floating in a hazy melody
I took my chances

And then we kissed goodnight
And everything was perfect, fantastic, now
Just now
I fell in love just now

Hey Maude, guess what
I've given up
I even wrote you a love letter
Drunkenly convinced
This is really it
You proved me the fool
I proved you the fooler

We did not expect that from you
We did not expect that from you
You were the single exception
We were hoping for love at first sight
First sight
Love at first sight
And now you got a song to sing about
First sight, first sight
Love at first sight
And now you got a song to sing about

Hey Maude, guess what
I've given up
I even wrote you a love letter
Drunkenly convinced
This is really it
You proved me the fool

We did not expect that from you
We did not expect that from you

You were the single exception
We were hoping for love at first sight
First sight
