

The Space for Love

Julie Cruise

The trees along the sidewalk
Are shadowing the light
For distant stars

And tenderly the night surrounds us
As we walk the quiet streets
While time is taken by the gentle wind
To make the space for love

The night surrounds us
As we walk the quiet streets
While time is taken by the gentle wind
To make the space for love
Your hand folds into mine