

Head Alone

Julia Jacklin

Give me a full length mirror
So I can see the whole picture
My head alone gives nothing away
'Cause I could stand on a chair
Put it back by the table before you get there
My head alone doesn't know how to say

I don't want to be touched all the time
I raised my body up to be mine

He said give me another drink
You know its easier to talk
When you don't have to think
Well my head alone won't do it that way

C'mon give me the room tonight
You know that I told you before that you hold me to tight
And my head alone just wants to say

I don't want to be touched all the time
I raised my body up to be mine
Yeah I don't want to be touched all the time
I raised my body up to be mine

I have your back
More than I have mine
I want you to feel good
All of the time

So I'll say it 'till he understands
You can love somebody without using your hands
Yeah I'll say it 'till he understands
You can love somebody without using your hands
