

Too In Love To Die

Julia Jacklin

I'm too in love to die
If this plane were to go down
Surely the love I feel for him
Would soften the ground

I'm too in love to die
God couldn't take me now
Surely the love I feel for him
Would save my life somehow

It would throw me a rope
Reach out a hand
Surely the powers that be
Would understand

That I'm too in love to die
If I stepped out on the highway
All the cars would spin around me like a dance
And here on earth I would stay

To throw you a rope
Reach out my hand
Use all the power in me
To understand
Why I need to stay here
Right by your side
Surely it's love like this that keeps us alive
