Break

Julia Stone

So I left and started dancing under the street light
And you saw me and I saw that you saw me
And you were always one to wander round these places
With eyes for ears and ears for ideas
And I slept, tell you what it was
I liked the way we felt
Your friend, he kept on talking about
I, I couldn't care
I know how I get when I hear people lie to me

Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away

Standing in your room and I keep on feeling I might drown
You ask me for more and more and more
So I left and started dancing under the street light
And you saw me and I saw that you saw me
And I want you to be

Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away
Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away

You turned off your phone
And I hit the wall, and
You know how people find themselves
In a fever, afterall
And you saw me and I traced the lines of your face around
The lines of what I had drawn

You know me by my heart
And you know me by my face
And you know me by the reasons
That the world took all of our places
And there's a thing when there's a reason
And there's a place to be here
And I was existing just to be unclear

Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away
Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away

Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away
Darling, darling, I feel like I might break
Darling, darling, you take my breath away
