

Burning House

Julia Wolf

I'm running back into the burning house for you

I'm sorry if I'm coming off strong
This is my first time
Feeling your love
And it's making me lose my mind

You're the last of your kind
And I found you
You're the last of your kind
And somehow I found you

I light a candle and focus on your name
Can you feel me from 3000 miles away?
I wanna kiss you
You let me over and over and over and over
You're kissing me back
I'm not tired are you?

Is this who I was always supposed to be?
If I had met you
Before they tore down the swing set
Before all the bad things happened
Before I chose my armor
Before I tried to tell them something was wrong

You turned me inside out
You've been through so much shit
How are you gentle now?

I'm running back into the burning house for you
For me
For us
For everything
I'm running back into the burning house
For you
For me
For us
For everything you let me be

For you
For us
For every life you've set me free
For you
For us
For every ache they didn't see

For you
For us
For me
For me

For you
For us
For me
For me
