

Down to my last dime
Check the chase app but its up
I'm alright
Couple zeros adding up last night
Every city I go pay me for my time
And your mom know all my songs
It's not a lie
Couldn't even stop me if I died
I don't think this shit since I was 9
Mm
You all told me to quit and I tried
I took a bet I rolled the dice

Your for you page
No it's mine
You do gymnastics in your mind
And that's fine
I used to be a hater too I can't lie
Left a bad Yelp review I did it twice
I did it twice

Your for you page
No it's mine
You do gymnastics in your mind
And that's fine
I used to be a hater too I can't lie
Left a bad Yelp review I did it twice
I did it twice

Actually I'm fine
And my sister holds the wheel down while I drive
When the death of my 20s finally arrived
It was all the same
Still have Gilmore on the TV nothings really changed

I don't wanna die
Give me 5 minutes outside and I'll be fine
You mean nothing to me now you're out my life
Finally out of the back of my mind

Your for you page
No it's mine
You do gymnastics in your mind
And that's fine
I used to be a hater too I can't lie
Left a bad Yelp review I did it twice
I did it twice

Your for you page
No it's mine
You do gymnastics in your mind
And that's fine
I used to be a hater too I can't lie
Left a bad Yelp review I did it twice
I did it twice
