

Girls

Julia Wolf

You know I'm for the girls but
I don't know what's worse I
Think she's so pretty
I see all the ways I'm not and

You know I'm for the girls but
I don't know what's worse I
Think she's so pretty
Hope she knows it's not her fault yeah

I'm searching Retinols at 5 AM
I'm turning into my mother
You know I start to feel her pain when they say
She looked like me when she was younger

Yank the covers
Find me there
Jealous hanging in the air
I'm on the wrong side of 30
And now I'm starting to worry

Yank the covers
Find me there
Jealous hanging in the air
I'm on the wrong side of 30
And now I'm starting to worry

You know I'm for the girls but
I don't know what's worse I
Think she's so pretty
I see all the ways I'm not and

You know I'm for the girls but
I don't know what's worse I
Think she's so pretty
Hope she knows it's not her fault yeah

Oh oh oh
It's not your fault it's not your
Oh oh oh
It's not your fault it's not your fault
Oh oh oh
It's not your fault it's not your
Oh oh oh
It's not your fault it's not

You know I'm for the girls but
I don't know what's worse I
Think she's so pretty
I see all the ways I'm not and

You know I'm for the girls but
I don't know what's worse I
Think she's so pretty
Hope she knows it's not her fault yeah
