Hydra

Julia Wolf

Clean the room in my underwear, keep the music loud
Sneak you in like you sneak Playboy in your house
When we get bored, go graffiti by the sound
Always knew that I would grow out of this town

'Bout to claim the throne, put this in the past
Flyin' coast to coast, fly to understand
It's virgin territory for us both
I'm about to break my only oath
Call me traitor if I make it out on my own, yeah

Cut me off, I'm the Hydra
I'll only come back to haunt ya
This is for the best, you don't see it yet
This is for the best, fuck did you expect?
Cut me off, I'm the Hydra
I'll only come back to haunt ya
This is for the best, you could be upset
Put me to the test, fuck did you expect?

This is for the best, you could be upset
Put me to the test, fuck did you expect?

Throw my hair in a bun (Bun), show my face to the sun (To the sun)
I'm not who you thought I was, I left you without a 'cause and
No warnin', I got deadlines swarmin'
I got flights in the mornin', you can't hold me back from runnin'

Claim the throne and put this in the past (In the past)
Flyin' coast to coast, fly to understand
It's virgin territory for us both
I'm about to break my only oath
Call me traitor if I make it out on my own, yeah

Cut me off, I'm the Hydra
I'll only come back to haunt ya
This is for the best, you don't see it yet
This is for the best, fuck did you expect?
Cut me off, I'm the Hydra
I'll only come back to haunt ya
This is for the best, you could be upset
