

I space out sends, snap you instead
Want you to see if I leave you on read
None of it matters, I'm chasing the bread
Don't feel the pull when you tug on my thread
Find you in my late night thoughts
Shove you out and press restart
My subconscious only let's me get so far

Fill my shopping cart up with new Nikes
Scuff 'em all up like how I been treating your psyche
I get so indifferent, I can never keep tidy
Put my shit on Airplane Mode 'cause I be too flighty

Why am I so selfish? I feel guilt for not feeling guilty
This cycle's endless focus on the fact that I'm still dependent
Hands-up on defense don't recommend it, not for a second
But, I thought by now I'd have more to flex can't prioritize your text
I've been doing the most all behind the scenes and I don't talk to just say things
You can find out in your own time, in your own time
Find you in my late night thoughts
Shove you out and press restart
My subconscious only let's me get so far

Fill my shopping cart up with new Nikes
Scuff 'em all up like how I been treating your psyche
I get so indifferent, I can never keep tidy
Put my shit on Airplane Mode 'cause I be too flighty

Maybe I'm just a bit on my head
Maybe I'm a just a bit on the fence
Want love, but it's complicated
No time I got less patience
Oh, I don't think you see me how I see me
'Cause I've never been too much for talking I just keep it low-key while I

Fill my shopping cart up with new Nikes
Scuff 'em all up like how I been treating your psyche
I get so indifferent, I can never keep tidy
Put my shit on Airplane Mode 'cause I be too flighty

I be too flighty
Put my shit on
'Cause I be too flighty

Fill my shopping cart up with new Nikes
Scuff 'em all up like how I been treating your psyche
I get so indifferent, I can never keep tidy
Put my shit on Airplane Mode 'cause I be too flighty

I be too flighty
