

I Know

Julie Bergan

I could grow a garden six feet high
And give you all the roses, I
Write our names in the sky
If I could just call you mine
Let me in just one last time
I could use a little love tonight
It gets so cold outside
It gets so cold outside

I, I lied
Told you that I'm fine
Call me back
'Cause I'm dying to tell you

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I probably shoulda never let you go
Oh-oh-oh-oh, baby
Just call me back and say you
Know, you know, you know, you know, you know
You probably shoulda never let me go
Maybe you could be mine again

Caught up in my fears, love had me blind
I was only seeing warning signs
Now I just see what's left behind
A buncha good and a few bad times
So tell me, do you see 'em, do you see 'em
Tell me what you feeling, what you feeling
And tell me that you need me, do you really need me, now

I, I lied
Told you that I'm fine
Call me back
'Cause I'm dying to tell you

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I probably shoulda never let you go
Oh-oh-oh-oh, baby
Just call me back and say you
Know, you know, you know, you know, you know
You probably shoulda never let me go
Maybe you could be mine again, eh

I, I lied (oh)
(Know, you know, you know, you know, you know)
Told you that I'm fine
(You probably shoulda never let me go)
Call me back
(Maybe you could be mine again)

I know, I know, I know, I know, I know
I probably shoulda never let you go
Oh-oh-oh-oh, baby
Just call me back and say you
Know, you know, you know, you know, you know
You probably shoulda never let me go
Maybe you could be mine again, eh
