

I'm Good

Julie Bergan

If not now, then when?
If not me, then who?
If not here, then where?
If not this, then what?
If not big, then how?
I don't need no advice
(Don't tell me what to do)

So I don't need you or your company
No, stop telling me what I should be
No, I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way
And no, you know it's up to me, not you
No, stop telling me what I should do
No, I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way

I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way

When I cry, I weep
When I smile, it's all over me
I don't lie, you'll see
And I like to go my way
Why is it so hard to take?
No don't try, I'm good
(Don't tell me what to do)

So I don't need you or your company
No, stop telling me what I should be
No, I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way
And no, you know it's up to me, not you
No, stop telling me what I should do
No, I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way

I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way

(Not now, not now
Not now, not now
Not now, not now
Don't tell me what to do
Not now, not now
Not now, not now
Not now, not now
Don't tell me what to do)

I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way
I live for my mistakes and I'll do it my way
