

Ran

Julie Doiron

I ran, I ran everywhere and I can't go back to you
I ran, I ran everywhere and I can't go back to you

You told me it was over, you told me it was through You told me it was over and I believed you

So I ran, I ran everywhere and I can't go back to you
I ran, I ran everywhere and I can't go back to you

You pretend to love me and maybe you do
You pretend to love me, but I, I don't believe you

So I run, I run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you

You make it seem like you want me around, you make it seem like you do
You make it seem like you want me around, but we, we both know it's through
So you're free

And I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I can't go back to you
Yeah, I'm free
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
I'll run, I'll run everywhere and I won't go back to you
