

So Fast

Julie Doiron

You seem so young
I didn't notice how fast
Those things would come to you

You seem so fast
I didn't even notice how slow
Those things should come to you

And you changed
How strange
And I didn't even get to explain

I do I do

You seem so dumb
You didn't notice how wrong
Those things were meant for you

You seem so lost
You know you didn't even ever notice me
I tried looking out for you

And you changed
How strange
And I didn't even get to explain

I do I do
