

Absent Minded Me

Julie London

Absent-minded me
Absent-minded me

I'm losing a key
Or missing a glove
Just like me to lose my love
Gotta find it
Absent-minded me

Dizzy, dopey me
Mixed-up mopey me
I'm way, way ahead
Of the game, then it starts
How I lose my king of hearts
Gotta find it
Absent-minded me

Well, there's my key
Gee, I left it in the door
And there's my glove on the shelf
Now I've got to find my love
'Cause I'm losing myself
Gee, it's tough to be
Absent-minded me
Absent-minded me
