There's a look in your eyes
As our love is defined
There's a message inside

When it's time to prove your trust - the routine is not enough
- it's not enough
There's a look in your eyes, I need you tonight, sweetly refined, sometimes love needs trust A time comes in your life when the moral path is not the righteous one its not the righteous one It was passed down by the judgment stand, if you want to remain in cuffs just give me your hand Let your life shine through the dark - let's slip away this tim e - time
Let your eyes shine in night - let's slip away this time - time
There's nothing to hide
As our bodies collide
Its all in your mind
Let your life shine through the dark - let's slip away this tim
e - time
Let your eyes shine in night - let's slip away this time - time
Theres a message inside, inside your eyes Sometimes love requires humiliation Sometimes lust requires domination
