Juliet Simms

Not here to accept an apology
Call me the weaker sex so you can sleep
I'll show you how revenge can taste so sweet
I'll walk on water just to shake your belief

Don't blame me for cutting you off at the knees
Trash talking in your head to give you some peace
Put me on a pedestal, call me obscene
You built the castle, but I rule over me

If it's a man's world
I wanna be king
If it's a man's world
Don't wanna be queen
If it's a man's world bringing me down
If it's a man's world wearing the crown
If it's a man's world
I wanna be, I wanna be
King

Sicker than the sickest psycho, off with your head
Don't test the switchblade in-between my legs
You wanna gain my trust and earn my respect
Who's to say a woman can't think with her dick?

If it's a man's world
I wanna be king
If it's a man's world
Don't wanna be queen
If it's a man's world bringing me down
If it's a man's world wearing the crown
If it's a man's world
I wanna be, I wanna be

If it's a man's world I wanna be, I wanna be
If it's a man's world I wanna be, I wanna be
If it's a man's world I wanna be king

Say I'm not as strong
Just something to command
Like I don't own myself
Like a man, like a man, like a man

Oh, don't you know the woman I am?
(No oh oh)
Don't you know the woman I am?
Don't you know the woman I am?
Don't you know, don't you know, don't you know
The woman I am?

If it's a man's world
I wanna be king
If it's a man's world
Don't wanna be queen
If it's a man's world bringing me down
Don't mean a thing, I'm taking the crown
If it's a man's world

I wanna be, I wanna be
King
