

Release Me

Juliet Simms

So, here I am
I come to you as a friend
With nothing left to spend
I still have plenty of wounds to mend

Say oh
I hold a message for you
Say oh oh oh
I hold a message

Won't you release me?
The tide is turning
Won't you release me?
My soul is burning
Well, I saw love shot down
So I writhe in pain
Burn in the dust
And dance in the rain
Release me
I never wanted it to be this way
Oh, release me
I never wanted it to be this way

So, here I stand
And I'm doing the best that I can
Well, I'm trying to hold it together
Hold it together again

Say oh
I hold a message for you
Say oh oh oh
I hold a message

Won't you release me?
The tide is turning
Won't you release me?
My soul is burning
Well, I saw love shot down
So I writhe in pain
Burn in the dust
And dance in the rain
Release me
I never wanted it to be this way
Won't you release me?
I never wanted it to be this way

I'm in prison in my mind
And the blindness of bad things passing through
And a revolution just would be feeling true
Despite all the things I do

Wont you release me? [x8]

Won't you release me?
The tide is turning
Won't you release me?
My soul is burning

Well, I saw love shot down
So I writhe in pain
Burn in the dust
And dance in the rain
Release me
I never wanted it to be this way

Won't you release me?
Release me
Release me
Oh, release me

Yeah