

Tidal Wave

Juliet Simms

Here I stand where I begin
Deep in the shadows of my sin
Underneath the hearts of men
I don't think you'll see me again

Find me frozen in my home
Afraid that I'll be all alone
These walls around me made of stone
And I can't break 'em on my own

Not scared to die yeah, I'm so sick of tryin'
I'm waiting for a tidal wave
I think it could save me
Wiping my slate clean
So I'm waiting for a tidal wave
(Waiting for a tidal wave)

It's hard to swallow my regret
So I've been tryin' to forget
Where I'm from and where I've been
Feel like a stranger in my skin

Not scared to die yeah, I'm so sick of tryin'
I'm waiting for a tidal wave
I think it could save me
Wiping my slate clean
So I'm waiting for a tidal wave

When I see it coming I don't run away, run away
I've got my feet on the ground
Everything that's keeping me from who I am meant to be
All comes tumbling down

Not scared to die yeah, I'm so sick of tryin'
I'm waiting for a tidal wave
I think it could save me
Wiping my slate clean
So I'm waiting for a tidal wave
(Waiting for a tidal wave)

Not scared to die yeah, I'm so sick of tryin'
I'm waiting for a tidal wave
I think it could save me
Wiping my slate clean
So I'm waiting for a tidal wave
(Waiting for a tidal wave)
