

Touch

July Talk

No one gets to get this close
You told me to fit right in
Where I was needed most
We had to wait, anticipate and come of age

We had to keep each other in a cage
On the stage, on the stage, on the stage
Don't want to give myself away too much
Touch

There's no good way to say goodbye
We got everything to lose, nothing to hide
Got to give and take and give and take
It's best to save all you crave for the stage

We get so tired and lonely
We all need a human touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
Touch
Touch

I want to make some space underneath my skin
Cut me open, I can let you in
Should I let myself be torn in two?
And will you give into that side of you?

We get so tired and lonely
We need a human touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
Touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
Touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
Touch

We get so tired and lonely
We need a human touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
Touch

We get so tired and lonely
We need a human touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
T-t-t-touch

We get so tired and lonely
Screaming out for your touch
Don't want to give ourselves away too much
T-t-t-t-t-t-touch
Don't want to give myself away too much
T-t-touch (Screaming out for your touch)
Don't want to give myself away too much
Touch
Don't want to give myself away too much
T-t-t-t-t-t-touch
Don't want to give myself away too much
