

Midnight

Jump, Little Children

In here it's always midnight
In here it's always dark
In here there's always a shadow cast
By these fluorescent lights

In here forever is a dying myth
In here forever is a lie
In here forever is a space between
Your every breath
Midnight

It's never dark enough
To hide us from tomorrow
Never dark enough
To keep us in shadow
In here
Midnight is always

In here I still here you whispering
In here I hear your fragile voice
In here I hear your laughter floating down
Like paper rain
Midnight

It's never dark enough
To hide us from tomorrow
Never dark enough
To keep us in shadow
In here, midnight

Midnight
It's never dark enough
To hide us from tomorrow
Never dark enough
To keep us in shadow
In here
In here
In here
It's always midnight
