

Don't Run Away

Jump5

Close your eyes, take a breath
Come and take a jump inside
You won't have to think about tomorrow

Come along, get on board
'Cuz it's time to take a ride
Can anything else you know remove the sorrow?

You will find it's the only way
You've been wrong before
Only now you can receive it

Don't run away from love, don't run away
(Don't run away)
Just 'cuz you don't wanna give in
Don't run away from love, don't run away
(Don't run away)
There's gotta be somethin' more to believe
Don't run away, don't run away from love

Don't run away

You've been down, down this road
Like a thousand times before
Say you don't have the strength to change your mind

What's the deal, what's to lose
What are you waitin' for?
Do you really wanna be the one who's left behind?

You will find it's your lucky day
You have lost before
Maybe now you can believe it

Don't run away from love, don't run away
(Don't run away)
Just 'cuz you don't wanna give in
Don't run away from love, don't run away
(Don't run away)
There's gotta be somethin' more to believe
Don't run away, don't run away from love

Don't you run away from love, don't you run away
(Don't run away from love)
Don't you run away from love, don't you run away
(Don't run away)

You will find it's your lucky day
You have lost before
Maybe now you can believe it

Don't run away from love, don't run away
Just 'cuz you don't wanna give in
Don't run away from love, don't run away
(Don't run away)
There's gotta be somethin' more to believe
Don't run away, don't run away from love
