

I Know Why You Calling

June's Diary

I know why you calling
I know why you calling

I ain't surprise that you called me
It's been weeks ago
Said you fell off and now you need me
And I ain't coming back home
'Cause once you get it like I give it
Can't just go back to anyone else
And if I said it boy I meant it
Can't get this shit from anyone else

I got you running back for all the time
Baby, just admit it bet you wanna feel it
I got you coming back late at night
Think I know the reason we ain't gotta speak

I know why you calling
Ooh
I know why you calling
Ooh
I know why you calling

So let me guess you want this good shit
Same ole thing you fell in love with
Ooh I I I I I I
Boy you know you want this good shit
Same ole thing you fell in love with
Ohh oh, I I I I I I
Don't be on that bullshit
We only fucking baby that's it
I know why you calling

I know why you calling
Ooh
I know why you calling
Ooh
I know why you calling
