

Take Me

June's Diary

Take me to the love island
Cause something in the water drew me to you, to you
I'm falling for your lies yeah
But something bout the way you say it's so true, so true

Oh, you say they can't love me like that
They can't love me like that
We keep falling into this trap, there ain't no going back
I know, never usually this stupid so I blame it on cupid
You already know it's all yours

So won't you take me
Take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind
Oh, take me, take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind, oh
Run away, run away, run away my love
Run away, run away, run away my love
Take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind, oh

Take me to the love island
Cause I wanna spend every moment with you, with you
Want this for a lifetime, yeah
I got so many options but I choose you, choose you

Oh, you say they can't love me like that
They can't love me like that
We keep falling into this trap, there ain't no going back
I know, never usually this stupid so I blame it on cupid
You already know it's all yours

So won't you take me
Take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind
Oh, take me, take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind, oh
Run away, run away, run away my love
Run away, run away, run away my love
Take me, take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind, oh

Oh, you say they can't love me like that
They can't love me like that
We keep falling into this trap, there ain't no going back
I know, never usually this stupid so I blame it on cupid
You already know it's all yours

Run away, run away, run away
Run away, run away, run away
Run away, run away, run away
Run away, run away, run away
Run away, run away, run away
Run away, run away, run away

So won't you take me
Take me to the island

Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind
Oh, take me, take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind, oh
Run away, run away, run away my love
Run away, run away, run away my love
Take me, take me to the island
Don't be wasting time boy, before I change my mind, oh
