

Wrap Around

June's Diary

Sometimes
I get lonely
Sometimes I do
Oh love is all I want
From you (from you...)

Being single so damn overrated
I just want somebody I can call my own
Tired of these games that they be playing
'Cause when it comes to love that's when they hit the door
Wah nah nah nah
I just want somebody I can lo-lo-love
Where you
At I'm looking for my only one
Got you when I get you then it's on on on

This time I'm for real
I'm ready right here
I said it loud and clear

I just want somebody I can wrap around...

How I feel I'm almost scared to say it
But you're the one I want to put my all into
You and I are bomb so dedicated, yeah
Find myself ain't ever really been that cool
Oh nah nah nah
I just want somebody I can lo-lo-love
Where you
At I'm looking for my only one
Got you when I get you then it's on on on

This time I'm for real
I'm ready right here
I said it loud and clear

I just want somebody I can wrap around...

Everyone needs someone to love
Be my love for a little while, a little while

Tell me if you feel the same way I do
I'll treat you right and cater to you
Oh I need you babe come hold me closer
Know that love can take good care of both us, yeah

This time I'm for real
I'm ready right here
I said it loud and clear

I just want somebody I can wrap around...
