

Decalcomania

Jung Kook

When I see you smile in the screen
You're good at everything
You're just perfect
Feels like I've never been you

Do you even see me?
Do you know who I am?
Or how do I look now?
You don't like me like that

Come and tell me so much, you beautiful heart
Oh, I'm gonna listen to you
Please

All the numbers too big
Can't get out of your game
Oh, I want to paint it like you
Please

I want to be your decalcomania
I want you
I want to be your decalcomania
I want
I want you
