The long path of sending you off
I'm still standing there
Watching the season you love
Come and go

You don't need to try at all
When things get too much
You can forget my name any time

When the flowers spread
A new spring will come to you too
Even if it takes time
Please be happy

The next words
I cannot tell you
So I'll keep them in my heart

When the flowers spread
A new spring will come regardless
Even if it takes a while
Please be happy

Snowflakes are falling
Are you watching?
Our season that was so cold that it was sad
It's passing by

Can't you think of me once more
For the last time?
I want us to have the same hearts once again
Before I let us go

Days I loved you so much
Forever, I'll be here
