slowly dying
screaming pain
with your life you must pay
bound by nails
ropes of thorn
blood for power
the weakened mourn

twisted thoughts of pain
travel through my brain

endless torture screams of gore flames to blacken forever more thoughts of death and doom live your life in gloom

twisted thoughts of pain

better to rule in HELL then to serve in heaven pity the weak deeper they fell broken courage trapped by fear fading to black the end is near

visions fading
my world grows thin
skin grows colder
as my body caves in
living in DARKNESS
the sea of flames
my soul carried
underground
your life I claim
