

Coming Back

Jungle

I don't dream
I don't miss you (Na, na, na)
I ain't scared, honey
'Cause I'm different

So it's nice to meet ya
So it's nice to meet ya

I don't dream
I don't miss you (Na, na, na)
I ain't scared, honey
'Cause I'm different (Na, na, na, na-ah)

So it's nice to meet ya
So it's nice to meet ya

Keep coming back, coming back for more
Keep running back, running through my door
Keep coming back, coming back for more
Keep running back, running through my door

So it's nice to meet ya
Keep coming back, running back for more (So it's nice to meet ya)
Keep running back, running through my door

I'm living on a roundabout
I'm living all alone because
I'm living on a roundabout
I'm living all alone because

Keep coming back, coming back for more
Keep running back, running through my door
Keep coming back, coming back for more
Keep running back, running through my door
