

Good At Breaking Hearts

Jungle

Good at breaking hearts
Better to pretend
Known it from the start

Only good at breaking hearts (Good at breaking hearts)
Better off to pretend (Better to pretend)
Should have known it from the start (Known it from the start)
Never gonna speak again

Cut your hair, go feel the breeze
Wipe those tears away, don't you look for me
Under that sunshine is just a man in grief
Summer days, so hard to leave
Baby, I'm safe in therapy
Never did I treat nobody honestly
Oh, raging fire, where you wanted me
Hate me or love me, I say, watching you walk away

Only good at breaking hearts (Good at breaking hearts)
Better off to pretend (Better to pretend)
Should have known it from the start (Known it from the start)
Never gonna speak again

Running out of time, running out of time
Chasing paradise, I was in denial
Please let me show you
Too late to hold you

Only good at breaking hearts (Good at breaking hearts)
Better off to pretend (Better to pretend)
Should have known it from the start (Known it from the start)
Never gonna speak again

Sweet sunshine
Sweet Harlem night breeze
God is love, God is free
Way my heart gon' chase the breeze

Only good at breaking hearts (Sweet sunshine)
Better off to pretend (Where the heart been lost, I free)
Should have known it from the start (Got no steps for these feet)
Never gonna speak again (But I'm breaking hearts a thousand times)
Only good at breaking hearts

Sweet sunshine
Sweet Harlem night breeze
God is love, God is free
