

Out My Window

JUNGLEPUSSY

There's a rainbow out my window
Brown skin poppin', need a pot of gold (Need a pot of gold)
There's a rainbow out my window
Brown skin poppin', need a pot of gold (Need a pot of gold)
(Attitude)

You can't fill a empty heart with designer clothes
Can't hide a ugly soul with a fire pose
Contour, highlightin' on your face, it show
(There's a rainbow, out my window)
Know you see the glow
You windowshoppin' wanna cop me but you can't no more
So you copy, know you got me on your vision board
And I heard you in the shower singin' all my songs
You top biddin' if I auction off my Jungle thong
No Givenchy worth more than me
Christian Dior straight dollar store compared to me
I'm heaven's door, some point in time, no one ignores
You never met a girl like me
Been somewhere in your wildest dreams
That never before me, you seen
Junglepussy, no unicorn

There's a rainbow out my window
Brown skin poppin', need a pot of gold (Need a pot of gold)
There's a rainbow out my window
Brown skin poppin', need a pot of gold (Need a pot of gold)

Why, there's a rainbow in my window
My brown skin's poppin'
(You just poured honey all over this shit)
Need a pot of gold, yeah
(This is just what I needed)
Need a pot of gold

This remind me of the time I realized I'm that bitch
It was a beautiful day birds was chirpin' and shit
I was sippin' a smoothie, lickin' my lips
I had this silky wrap doobie, nails with the tips
I know you see me with my combats boots on Complimentin' my sports bra, you don't want war
You know I came from the jungle but the pussy run the game on you
I ain't changed I just limit when I hang with you
When you poppin' you confuse them
Make 'em pay for the amusement
It's a feeling 'cause you can't say
Yeah, it's a feeling that you can't fake

I can't wait 'til we escape this
I know a place where they can't take it
I can't wait, I can't wait
I can't wait 'til we escape this
I know a place where they can't take it
I can't wait, I can't wait

Deep within, it's buried in the pattern of my skin
Just explain to me baby why you actin' so strange

Ever since you figured out the world has always been the same
When you poppin' you confuse them
Make 'em pay for the amusement
It's a feeling 'cause you can't say
Yeah, it's a feeling that you can't fake

There's a rainbow out my window
Brown skin poppin'
Brown skin poppin', need a pot of gold
There's a rainbow outside my window
Brown skin poppin', need a pot of gold
Need a pot of gold
